Sales Tax Holiday:

August 5-7

This year's Sales Tax Holiday is August 5-7. As in previous years, the law exempts most clothing, footwear, school supplies and backpacks priced under $100 from sales and use taxes, which could save shoppers about $8 on every $100 they spend. The dates for the sales tax holiday are set by the Legislature. Subject to certain criteria, all sales of qualifying items made during the holiday period qualify for the exemption, including items sold online, by telephone or mail. Lay-away plans can be used again this year to take advantage of the sales tax holiday. To read the fine print, visit TexasTaxHoliday.org.

Eye of the Collector
 Through September 5 at Perot Museum of Nature and Science

At the Museum every object and specimen tells a story. In Eye of the Collector, the quirky, crafty, historical and fashionable objects of nine very different people come together to show that the recollections they have of their prized possessions are at least as valuable as the collections themselves.

While all collectors are united by their common desire to seek and gather objects, the reasons why they collect are varied. Some have a natural curiosity about the world around them or have a desire to forge a connection with a rich culture. Others love to keep mementos of happy moments in their lives or wish to build a legacy that can live on for others to enjoy after them. For some it is simply the thrill of hunting down and finding an elusive object that fuels their drive to collect.

At the heart of the exhibition are the diverse collections of Randy and Nancy Best, who view these objects as time capsules that provide insights about prehistoric life and ancient civilizations. Also including Dallas Cowboy memorabilia, PEZ dispensers of all kinds, the largest Star Wars collection in the world, gorgeous Ballet Folklorico dresses and more, Eye of the Collector holds something for all interests. For more information, visit perotmuseum.org or call 214-428-5555. Contact your concierge for discounted general admission tickets.

Notice Regarding Angelika & Landmark Movie Tickets

Based on ticket sales over the past 15 years we have decided to continue carrying Angelika tickets in very small quantities. However, they did raise prices on those tickets over a year ago. We are sold out of our old stock at the lower pricing so all Angelika ticket sales are at the new rate of $8.50 per ticket. These tickets are restricted and not valid the first 7-10 days of a new release.

We have decided to discontinue selling the Landmark tickets. We did pay a discounted rate of $8 per ticket but intend to sell our remaining stock at only $7 per ticket while supplies last. These tickets are not restricted and can be used on new releases, excluding those designated as "special engagements". They do not have an expiration date. To place your order for Landmark tickets, please visit texasconciergeconnection.com and click on the "order tickets" tab at the top.
