Top 5 New Year's Resolutions

New Year's Eve sparks a fire in many people. This is the time of the year people reflect on the accomplishments and shortcomings of the past 12 months. In turn, people are now setting their goals for the upcoming year by way of New Years resolutions. The beginning of a new year is like a fresh start for many people. Here is a list of the 5 most common New Year's resolutions:

1. Lose Weight/Diet/Eat Healthier - Whether it's just a few holiday pounds to be lost or a significant life changing regimen, weight loss is the top New Year's resolution. Millions of Americans pledge themselves to better health every year, even though a small percent stick to and achieve this goal. Each January, gyms offer promotions on this resolution. This is the time to take advantage of those great offers!

2. Quit Smoking - This one is close second for millions of Americans. Giving up smoking is one of the hardest things for smokers to do successfully. It's one more step in the direction of better health. Even if you've tried to quit before and failed, don't let it get you down. Just try again this year!

3. Manage Debt - Everyone has experienced the burden of debt. Debt can cause stress on financial wellness, relationships, family, and overall happiness. Nobody is happy when buried in bills that don't go away. To manage one's debt and become free from its hold is one of the best joys for millions of Americans. Join the millions of Americans who have resolved to spend less this year. It's a promise that will repay itself many times over in the year ahead!

4. Get Organized - On just about every New Year's resolution list, organization can be a very reasonable goal. This might mean your kitchen, your bedroom drawers, to keep your home organized enough you can invite someone over on a whim, or your office organized enough that you can find the stapler when you need it.

5. Learn Something New - It could be French, a musical instrument or how to cook something other than microwaveable meals. The sky is the limit, and in this great world, there are so many fascinating things to discover. Whether you take a course or read a book, you'll find education to be one of the easiest, most motivating New Year's resolutions to keep.
