46th Annual 4th of July Parade

Monday, July 4 - 9am

The Arlington 4th of July Association would like to welcome you to the largest Independence Day Parade in Texas. The parade is an annual event and consists of generally 150 entries. The number of spectators over the years has ranged from 5,000 to 70,000. Parade entries include marching bands to exotic automobiles, military color guards to clowns, and dignitaries to unique presentations. Of course, the parade has a distinguished assortment of floats. Some floats are professionally built, but many are the proud results of individual ingenuity by local organizations and businesses. There is even an award ceremony after the parade at Heritage Park, 201 W. Front Street, at 1pm to recognize excellence within each of the several categories. For more information, visit www.arlington4th.com.

400th Anniversary of The King James Bible: Passages

Experience The Bible Like Never Before - World Premiere at the Oklahoma City Museum of Art, Through October 16, 2011

Passages is a 14,000-square-foot interactive, multimedia exhibition for all ages. It features some of the most exquisite and rare biblical manuscripts, printed Bibles, and historical items in the world. These cultural treasures include a Dead Sea Scroll text, ancient biblical papyri, beautifully illuminated manuscripts, early printed materials, including a portion of the Gutenberg Bible, and multiple first editions of the English Bible through the King James Version.

Visitors are immersed in a fascinating story that spans over two thousand years, winding through Judeo-Christian history, from an ancient synagogue to a modern excavation site where new discoveries are being made. Over 300 of the world's rarest artifacts are presented in highly thematic settings which depict significant historical periods of time that are brought to life with animatronic historical figures, creative films and many interactive activities for both the young and old. Each guest is provided with an iPod Touch, at no additional charge, so they may travel through time with expert commentary on the artifacts by some of the world's leading scholars. There is even a children's listening track hosted by Louie the Lion.

Special effects and surprises are found throughout the exhibit so that guests cannot only get a glimpse into history but also feel as if they are part of the translation and transmission of the Bible into English.

The self-directed tour ends with an original film that capsulates this amazing story, shot on location throughout the world, with special narration by Wintley Phipps. Not just an exhibit – an experience. For more info, visit www.explorepassages.com.

WaySavvy.com

Find Deals for Flights and Hotels

Do yourself a favor and save time scouring the web for flight and hotel packages with WaySavvy.com. What it does: Searches the internet for the best flight and hotel deals based on your departure point, destination and dates. Then it displays three options: WaySavvy's choice, the cheapest choice, and the swankiest choice. What's hot: It speeds up booking by reducing distractions. Instead of seeing page after page of hotel choices, ratings, photos and more, you see a limited selection. Then if you want to see more hotel options and amenities, search with advanced options or click on "change hotel/flight" and see more choices. I liked using this website as a pricing guide. What's not: Choose your search terms carefully. I knew I'd done something wrong when I got only a few airport hotels in my search results for "San Francisco International Airport." Changing my destination search term to "San Francisco" helped to broaden the results. - Jan Leo, Los Angeles Times

The Dallas/Fort Worth & Beyond

Attractions Pass!

With such a diverse and large region, the Attractions Pass packages together a mixture of culture, western heritage, and family fun. This pass allows you to be your own personal tour guide and gives residents a chance to rediscover their hometown and for those unfamiliar with the area, it provides a sampling of what there is to see, do and experience. Most importantly, it gives you a license to explore the area more on your own – finding those things that are unique to your individual tastes along the way – whether that be the arts, culture, heritage, or shopping. Order online at <http://dfwandbeyond.com/save>.

It's simple to use!

You can choose an annual pass to use throughout the year or you can purchase a one, two or three day pass. Activate your Attractions Pass by having your pass e-barcode scanned at any of the participating locations. Then enjoy all the attractions at your leisure. Attractions Passholders save up to 30% off general admission ticket prices. As an added bonus, Passholders can purchase additional attraction tickets at a reduced rate.

How it Works

A single Dallas, Fort Worth & Beyond Attractions Pass gives you admission to seven different area attractions and other valuable traveler discounts in the region.

Available in an Annual Pass format or in 1-, 2- or 3-day increments, your Dallas/Fort Worth & Beyond Attractions

Pass is activated the first time you use it and will remain active for the number of consecutive days purchased, however, the pass is limited to one (1) visitation at each participating attraction per Pass.

	Adult (13 – 64 years)	Child (3-12 years)	Senior (65+ years)
1-Day Pass	$25	$18	$23
2-Day Pass	$38	$24	$32
3-Day Pass	$59	$29	$49
Annual Pass	$65	$32	$55

One pass per person. Non-refundable. Non-transferable. Pass is good for general admission only, excludes special exhibitions and special events unless otherwise indicated. Some attractions are closed on Mondays and major holidays. Please check hours of operation at participating venues. The Dallas/Fort Worth Area Tourism Council is not responsible for unauthorized duplication or lost or stolen vouchers.

If you need to contact them regarding your order, please email attractionspass@dfwandbeyond.com.
