Southlake Oktoberfest

October 5-7

Attend the 11th annual Oktoberfest celebration. There are no admission or parking fees. There will, however, be a wide range of food, beverages, and booth items available for sale! Take a stroll in Southlake's beautiful Town Square while looking at the unique, handcrafted arts and crafts booths. Great food and live entertainment are also at your fingertips during this fun-filled event. The kids will have a great time in the excitement-packed children's area! The fantastic entertainment line-up for this year will be Emerald City (Friday evening), Le Freak (Saturday evening), and Professor D (Sunday afternoon). Don't forget to sign up your dog to participate in the popular wiener dog race!

Visit www.oktoberfestsouthlake.com for more information, a full entertainment schedule and festival map. Hours of operation are Friday, October 5 (5pm-11pm); Saturday, October 6 (10am-11pm); and Sunday, October 7 (12pm-5pm).

Friday on the Green

Friday, October 12 (7pm-10pm)

This is the last month for Friday on the Green! It is a monthly concert series presented April-October and the event is held at Magnolia Green, located on Lipscomb between Magnolia and Rosedale. Friday on the Green regularly attracts hundreds during the warm weather months with the region's best live music, tasty food, drinks, and the fun and relaxed atmosphere of a big neighborhood picnic. Groups of families and friends show up with blankets, chairs and pets to enjoy a lineup of two or three great local bands, great food from Food Trucks, and beer from Rahr & Sons Brewing Company and Coors Light.

For more information on Friday on the Green, Fall ArtsGoggle, and Fall Open Streets, contact Michel Stebbins with Fort Worth South, Inc (a non-profit redevelopment organization working to revitalize this important urban neighborhood):

Fall ArtsGoggle

Saturday, October 13 (4pm-10pm)

ArtsGoggle, the twice-yearly celebration of art, artists and music in Fort Worth, Texas' Near Southside, is expecting another tremendous turnout. Since its inception in 2003, ArtsGoggle has evolved into a popular festival of the arts in this eclectic neighborhood of historic elegance and urbanism immediately south of the central business district of Fort Worth. This free to the public, family-friendly event attracts a crowd as diverse as the neighborhood itself with live music, artistic displays of every kind, food, drink, and fun for everyone. This year 90 businesses in the Near Southside will become art venues and open their doors to show off the work of a variety of local artists. The public is invited to park their cars and rediscover this revitalized urban neighborhood by foot, Molly the Trolley, bicycle or pedi-cab.

Fall Open Streets

Sunday, October 28 (1pm-5pm)

This free event will involve the closure of segments of streets to car traffic—only human-powered modes will be allowed, from pedestrians to bicycles and everything in between. The closed streets will be transformed into "urban playgrounds," with food vendors, live music, kid's areas, fitness classes, and more. This first Open Streets will take place on Magnolia Avenue, 5th Avenue, and Allen Avenue, forming a path linking the hotspot of Magnolia to the neighborhood streets of Fairmount (and its two parks, Fairmount Park on 5th and Fire Station Park on Allen). Some parts of the route will be chock-full of activities and vendors, while some will be more relaxed, allowing the gentle enjoyment of a neighborhood not dominated by cars.

State Fair of Texas 2012

Through October 21

Fair Park-Dallas

www.bigtex.com

Embarking on its 126th exposition, the State Fair amps up with high wattage in Dallas' Fair Park. The theme for this year's event is Big & Bright. In addition to lights, lights and more lights, fairgoers will celebrate the 100th anniversary of the Girl Scouts of America with an exhibit saluting the organization's commitment to community service, camping, and societal issues.

Contact your concierge for discount tickets: Adult $12.50 (Reg $16), Child (Under 48") $10 (Reg $12), Senior (60+) $10 (Reg $12), Children 2 and under are FREE.

For your convenience, we have pre-purchased a limited supply of food/ride coupons this year. Save yourself some time in line and buy your coupons when you purchase your tickets. Coupons will be sold on a first come, first served basis until they are sold out. Coupons are sold in sheets only! They contain (20) 50¢ coupons = $10 per sheet. (No discounts.)

The Addams Family Musical

October 2-21, 2012

Nothing changes a family faster than a daughter in love. The weird and wonderful family comes to devilishly delightful life in a Broadway musical. Spend an evening with Gomez, Morticia, Uncle Fester, Grandma, Lurch and Pugsley as they face a brand-new predicament. Daughter Wednesday has fallen in love with a young man. A nice young man, from a normal family. And the Addams household is about to be turned upside-down. It's a family portrait that's completely off the wall.

NOTE: Please be aware that this show is during the State Fair of Texas. Tickets to this show include free admission to the fair. Traffic will be heavier than usual, and parking is not reserved. For full details on what to expect, you may visit www.dallassummermusicals.org. Contact your concierge to purchase your tickets!

The All-New 2013 Shen Yun Show Returns to the Dallas/Fort Worth Metroplex, Presented by Southern USA Falun Dafa Association
January 2-3, 2013 at AT&T Performing Arts Center's Winspear Opera House
February 20, 2013 at Bass Performance Hall

"A mesmerizing performance of singers, dancers and musicians reclaiming the divinely inspired cultural heritage of China."

- Donna Karan, Creator of Donna Karan New York and DKNY

After a successful showing the past 2 years at the Winspear Opera House in Dallas, the New York based Shen Yun Performing Arts returns for a 3rd time to bring the audience another spectacular night of traditional Chinese culture. This year's tour will include performances at both the AT&T Performing Arts Center's Winspear Opera House in downtown Dallas and for the first time at the Bass Performance Hall in downtown Fort Worth. Every year, Shen Yun unveils an entirely new lineup of dances, songs, and musical scores. To audiences who have seen it, they recall it as an experience of a lifetime—a moment so powerfully beautiful that it touches the soul.

"In a collection of short pieces, audiences travel from the Himalayas to tropical lake-filled regions; from the legends of the culture's creation over 5,000 years ago through to the story of Falun Dafa in China today; from the highest heavens down to the dusty plateaus of the Middle Kingdom."

"Shen Yun Performing Arts was established in 2006 with the mission of reviving 5,000 years of divinely inspired Chinese culture. Unfortunately, over the past 60 years, this cultural treasure has been persecuted and co-opted by the Chinese Communist Party. It is outside of China that Shen Yun's artistic creators have the ability to freely express themselves and their ancient culture. Their courage to speak up is an integral part of Shen Yun's spirit. Today, Shen Yun counts many winners of international dance and vocal competitions among its artists and the orchestras include many musicians from world-renowned symphonies and conservatories." Quotations copyrighted by Shen Yun Performing Arts

CIRQUE DU SOLEIL RETURNS TO DALLAS WITH ITS BIG TOP PRODUCTION

KOOZA

Through October 20

Cirque du Soleil is thrilled to return to Dallas with a new big top touring show KOOZA. The critically-acclaimed production opened Wednesday, September 19 for a limited engagement under the white Big Top, Lot E at 500 Memorial Drive beneath Reunion Tower.

Since its premiere in April of 2007, KOOZA has charmed close to 4 million spectators in North America and Japan. KOOZA marks the 7th visit of a big top show in the Dallas area.

Written and directed by David Shiner, KOOZA is a return to the origins of Cirque du Soleil that combines two circus traditions – acrobatic performance and the art of clowning. The show highlights the physical demands of human performance in all its splendor and fragility, presented in a colorful mélange that emphasizes bold slapstick humor.

Contact your concierge to receive a special link to purchase tickets at a 20% discount on price level 1, 2 and 3 for “select performances.” Our discount will apply to performances on the following dates: (10/3, 10/4, 10/7). This discount is for a limited time only and subject to availability. Should you want to purchase tickets to another performance not listed above (at regular price), we will provide you with a different link.

The 9th Annual Santa Fe Days on the Square

Historic Downtown Carrollton
Saturday, October 13 (9am-6pm)

Sunday, October 14 (10am-4pm)

Santa Fe Days is a free, family friendly event which celebrates American Indian culture, heritage, arts and food. What started as a onetime Native American Indian Arts and Crafts event in 2003 has developed into a premiere American Indian cultural event with representation from many Nations and Pueblos across the Americas.

The Indigenous Color Guard, Renegade Nation and Southern Drum, Bear Claw Singers will lead the opening ceremony on October 13 at 9:30am. With the help of local veteran groups, they will be presenting a traditional American Indian Grand Entry and Flag Ceremony followed by a Fallen Soldier Ceremony so that we may honor our veterans through traditions which have been passed down through generations of American Indian families.

The event will feature interactive cultural education booths for adults and children. Throughout the event attendees will enjoy Indian Fry Bread and Indian Tacos while they shop for paintings, handmade flutes, silver jewelry, beadwork, weaving, pottery, carvings and other unique items for sale by the Artist Vendors from various Indian Nations. Entertainment includes Championship Plains Indian dancers, an internationally recognized Southern Drum group, Bear Claw Singers, Aztec dancers, and more.

For more information, call 972-242-6453, email moreinfo@santafedays.com, or log onto www.santafedays.com.

MORE DISCOUNT TICKETS & PASSES!

SISU Uptown Resort Celebrates Grand Opening with a mix of beach vacation, global dining, and the comforts of home, all under one roof. Restaurant/patio dining coupled with outdoor cabana club will offer a breath of fresh air to explosive Uptown hospitality scene.

Exotic vacation. Global dining with backyard ingredients. A nightlife destination. The comforts of home. These are just a few fine offerings provided by Sisu Uptown Resort which celebrated its grand opening on Saturday, September 22.

Eat. Drink. Swim.

Located in a 5,000-square foot historic home that has been completely renovated with modern design and eclectic details, Sisu encompasses a total of 16,000-square feet of beautiful seaside luxury, albeit landlocked and smack dab in the middle of Uptown, Dallas. It is not only a restaurant with a distinguished menu of “local worldly” food but also fresh cocktails and local brews. The back patio area is accompanied by a new lavish saltwater pool surrounded by palm trees. Enjoy your favorite room for a dining experience: kitchen, living room, family room, or private upstairs dining room with bar. A hand-carved door imported from Thailand greets guests. Whimsical eccentricities, such as the peacock wallpaper, cacti wall, and fuchsia color theme, provide a funky atmosphere with all the comforts of home.

The spirit of Sisu was evoked by hospitality veterans Dan Bui (formerly of Sfuzzi, Candleroom, Ghostbar, and others), Entertainment/Brand Director Wade Randolph Hampton (formerly of Ghostbar) and Executive Chef Stefon Rishel (formerly of Brackets). The soul of Sisu was created by In-house Public Relations Director and Design Consultant Elizabeth Nguyen.

The menu spans the tastes of seven continents while obtaining many ingredients locally. Executive Chef Stefon Rishel describes, “The inspiration for this menu is summertime and cooking at my grandparents’ house where we’d pick stuff from their garden and road side stands. We would cook with great ingredients in which they had poured their heart and soul. It’s the family secret to making food shine.”

Such starter delights as Duck Confit Quesadillas and Gulf Shrimp Ceviche served Peruvian-style launch the dining journey. A few tasty soup and salad options include Lobster and Sweet Corn Bisque, signature Sisu Salad made with field greens, local Chevre’, dried cherries and candied walnuts, and Grandview Farms Chicken Salad. Whether from the earth or the sea, Sisu has a delicious selection of entrees: Grilled Texas Redfish with garlic spinach and grapefruit watermelon broth, Mesquite Grilled Lobster with charred corn salad and blood orange vinaigrette, Coriander Rack of Lamb with minted peas, carrot ribbons and blackberry-jalapeno demi, and Hand-cut, 28-day Dry-aged Bone-In Ribeye served with delectable whitecheddar horseradish mashed, crispy spinach and moneybutter. Special poolside food menu is also available for delivery directly to cabanas, as well as an inspiring Saturday/Sunday brunch menu.

Sisu has retained the creative services of nightlife gurus, Wade Randolph Hampton & Associates, to ensure that the brand is slick, the music is stunning, and the flow of celebrities – endless. Hampton explains, “It’s such a rare opportunity to present an overall design and sound that is both cutting edge and absolutely timeless, simultaneously. Walk from one end of this property to the other and you’ll hear 50 years of incredibly sexy music.”

Sisu features multiple areas, including a massive patio/deck attached to the dining room, as well as a separate pool/cabana area with the ability to feature several music formats at once. Hampton continues, “Imagine Chico Hamilton’s unstoppable ‘El Toro’ from 1962 serenading over a glass of bubbly in the dining room. And then, only an hour later, soaking up a dreamy après dance under the stars poolside, to Maria Minerva’s retro-stealth ‘Disco Bliss’. There’s a real warmth to my current mix of French house music, Nou Disco and indie electro. But when I drop that dash of classic Michael Jackson, you’ll know it’s still coming straight from the heart. This might just be the most exciting music format I’ve been challenged to create for this town in decades.”

Sisu, a sophisticated urban playground, is located at 2508 Maple Avenue (near Crescent Court), Dallas, Texas 75201. It is open daily from 11am to 2am serving lunch, dinner (served until 11pm), late-night, and poolside menus along with Saturday and Sunday brunch. Sisu is 21+ poolside with membership only. Pool closes after 10pm. Bottle service is available. Stop in for happy hour (Monday-Friday, 4pm-7pm) and enjoy $5 house wines and well drinks with a happy hour menu.
