Are you ready to take on their all-new extreme water slide? Six Flags Fiesta Texas will introduce a brand-new expansion and extreme new water slide complex this year at White Water Bay. The all-new tropically-themed area in the water park will feature several new attractions and guest amenities including two kids' slides, a VIP cabana village, tiki bar, lounging lagoon, and the extreme thrill slide complex, Bahama Blaster. Bahama Blaster is set to debut this summer and will use a unique launching capsule to drop riders down an astounding six stories, where they'll free-fall and twist through loops and coils at 40 miles per hour.

Bahama Blaster is the first of its kind in Texas featuring trap-door-style launching capsules and intense tubes that provide an adrenaline rush like no other. You'll first step inside one of the four enclosed vertical launching capsules. After the door closes, you'll face a nerve-wracking countdown, waiting for that heart-pounding moment when the floor unexpectedly drops out below you, sending you free-falling down six stories. The launch programming may be varied to enhance the surprise and anticipation, either launching all four slides simultaneously or in a random sequence. Side-by-side with the other riders, you'll race through enclosed clear tubing as you encounter twists, turns, and looping spirals, before shooting into a splashy pool at the end.

In Grapevine, you'll sample vintages from three of North Texas' most-acclaimed wineries, each with its own unique history and charm. They'll shuttle you from one fabulous tasting room to the next in climate-controlled comfort, while your tour guide recounts the history of winemaking in North Texas. You'll also see Historic Grapevine Township, with its rich array of art galleries, shops and restaurants. Each tour includes three wine-tasting stops and a delicious lunch or dinner.

In Dallas, you'll visit award-winning local wineries and wine-themed establishments, each of which contributes to a rich tapestry that has developed virtually unnoticed over the last decade or so. They'll take you to these hidden gems, where you'll enjoy multiple tastings paired with an array of cheeses, appetizers, desserts and other accompaniments. At the group's request, you'll also get a brief spin through downtown Dallas' lively and rejuvenated Arts District.

Both tours are ideal for corporate team-building, bachelorette parties, birthday and anniversary celebrations, Girls Nights Out, convention excursions, fundraising events or just a break from the ordinary dinner-and-a-movie date. Out-of-town visitors and locals alike have made the tours some of the most popular entertainment attractions in North Texas.

Each tour runs roughly four hours in length and includes stops at three wine venues. Tours run daily, year-round, include transportation to and from local hotels and are led by exceptional professional guides.
