Juneteenth Freedom Fest/World Sickle Cell Day: June 19-20

Freedom Fest Productions is celebrating Juneteenth/World Sickle Cell Day 2015 with an outdoor concert in the beautiful Fort Worth Water Gardens in Downtown Fort Worth on Saturday, June 20, 2-10pm. Set up your lawn chairs on the beautifully manicured lawn of the Water Gardens to enjoy local and national talent, vendors and speakers. This family friendly event is free to the public and is full of entertainment, music, special tributes, speakers, food, fun and something for everyone to enjoy. Fort Worth's Juneteenth celebration has been thriving for 41 years and estimates that 2015 will bring a record number of people out to enjoy the festivities and to gain more awareness of Sickle Cell Disease.

Juneteenth is recognized as the date when slavery ended in Texas. Although the rumors of freedom were widespread prior to this, actual emancipation did not come until General Gordon Granger came to Galveston, Texas and issued General Order No.3 on the "19th of June, 1865," almost two and a half years after President Abraham Lincoln signed the Emancipation Proclamation. Juneteenth, also known as Freedom Day, is a recognized state holiday observed in 43 states and is an important part of our history.

World Sickle Cell Day and Sickle Cell Disease Awareness Month are NOT the same. World Sickle Cell Day celebrated on June 19 of each year, is recognized globally and was created by the United Nations by resolution. World Sickle Cell Day provides a great opportunity to bring awareness to Sickle Cell Anemia during the observance of Juneteenth in America and around the world. The National Medical Association (NMA) and the National Juneteenth Observance Foundation (NJOFF), in association with the Sickle Cell Disease Association of America and the African American Blood Drive and Bone Marrow Registry for Sickle Cell Disease Awareness, announced that the "19th of June" is officially World Sickle Cell Day. In the United States, Sickle Cell Disease Awareness Month is in September.

On June 19, Freedom Fest Productions will have a Juneteenth Shoe Give-Away for the Homeless and celebrate Juneteenth with Emmanuel HealthCare Nursing Home. To participate in future Juneteenth Freedom Fest celebrations and find ways you can support, email thelittleteapot@sbcglobal.net or call 817-797-2526.

Perot

Museum of Nature and Science

Summer may be heating up, but the Perot Museum of Nature and Science always offers cool relief with two new exhibitions that include amazing animals and a DIY makerspace, an exhilarating 3D film line-up, First Thursday Late Nights, second-Saturday Discovery Days, and adults-only Social Sciences for a surplus of summer fun perfect for all ages.

Amazing Animals: Built to Survive will entice visitors to uncover the marvels of natural engineering inside every living thing. Opening to the public June 13, the bilingual traveling exhibition will show how every living thing – including humans – is a machine built to survive, move and discover.

Plus, the DIY makerspace, Build It! Nature, opening to the public June 19, encourages families to tinker, create and uncover their inner engineer by exploring a series of engaging stations inspired by the plants and animals around us.

Extended hours will be available through September 4, with the Museum open until 6pm daily, giving visitors an extra hour of discovery. As always, Museum members can enjoy exclusive early-access hours every Saturday from 8:30-10am and Sunday, 10am-noon, as well as member-only access to the Moody Family Children's Museum on Mondays, 10am-noon.

FREE GENERAL ADMISSION FOR MILITARY AND FIRST RESPONDERS THIS SUMMER, PLUS REDUCED ADMISSION FOR QUALIFIED GUESTS! The Perot Museum of Nature and Science is pleased to offer complimentary general admission for veterans, active and retired U.S. military personnel and First Responders and $3 off general admission for members of their immediate families (up to six family members) through September 7, 2015.

As always, you may purchase discounted daily admission tickets through your concierge ($5 off AD and $2 off CH/SR). The Perot Museum is located at 2201 N. Field Street in Dallas, Texas. For more information, visit perotmuseum.org or call 214-428-5555.
