Valentine's Day in Greater Dallas-Fort Worth Area

While Dallas-Fort Worth is a thriving metropolis, it still plays host to a number of natural wonders.

The Dallas Arboretum, and Fort Worth Japanese Gardens will give couples the perfect environment for a romantic walk. Thistle Hill offers the chance to gaze at the stunning architecture of an early 20th century mansion.

Beaumont Ranch, just 30 minutes south of the Dallas/Fort Worth metroplex, but 1,000 miles from ordinary life, will give you the true cowboy experience of driving cattle. It lets you feel as if the rush of city life is left far behind and you leave with an appreciation of Texas and Texan culture that is rare to find.

Southfork Ranch Tram Tour & Ewing Mansion - home of the Famous "Dallas" TV Show. For "Dallas" fans, visiting the ranch and the famous Ewing mansion is a thrill. And the Dallas Legends exhibit gives you the chance to experience first-hand some of the memorable moments from the show.

The Cowtown Marathon February 25-26

The Cowtown® is celebrating its 39th year as it welcomes the world to Fort Worth. The Cowtown® offers a race distance for everyone, including the Cook Children's 5K, Adults 5K and 10K on Saturday and the Ultra Marathon presented by Miller Lite, Marathon and Half Marathon on Sunday. The entire family can participate either as a runner or a spectator cheering along the route. Ambitious runners can take The Cowtown® Challenge and run a race both days!

The Cowtown® Marathon is a nonprofit organization promoting health and fitness in the community. By running the Cowtown, runners are supporting C.A.L.F.® (Children's Activities for Life & Fitness) Program, which provides training and education to students regarding health and nutrition. A grant program is offered for children in need of funding their entries into the Cook Children's 5K. In addition these children are provided with training tools and quality running shoes to help them achieve their goals. The Cowtown® Marathon has partnerships with several local charities where runners raise funds for various causes, such as Alzheimer's Association and Team RWB.

Don't want to participate in the marathon but want to help give the gift of fitness? A donation of $50 covers the program's year-long training, shoes and entry fee grant for one child. Help instill a healthy lifestyle in our community and donate today. To register online, donate to C.A.L.F., or get additional information, visit cowtownmarathon.org.

Pirates on the Prairie VI

Perot Museum of Nature and Science

2201 N. Field Street, Dallas, TX 75201

Making its much-anticipated debut February 11, the 10,000-square-foot MAYA: HIDDEN WORLDS REVEALED is the largest traveling exhibition about the Maya ever to tour the U.S. Presented by Highland Capital Management, the exhibition brings together more than 200 authentic artifacts and immersive environments to explore the astonishing accomplishments of one of the most powerful indigenous Mesoamerican civilizations, that still has millions of living descendants today. Visitors will learn how the Maya built towering temples and created an intricate calendar system while discovering what archaeologists have uncovered about the once-hidden ancient Maya, and the unresolved questions about why these ancient cities were abandoned. Through hands-on activity stations, guests of all ages can decipher hieroglyphs, learn cultural and architectural techniques, and explore an underworld cave, ancient burial site, mural room and more. This bilingual exhibition, presented in English and Spanish, requires a surcharge for members and non-members. Contact your concierge to obtain discount tickets to the Perot Museum for only $12 per ticket General Admission (Reg. adult $19)

Hours: General hours of operation for the Perot Museum are 10am-5pm Monday through Saturday and noon-5pm Sunday. On the first Thursday of the month, the Museum will stay open until 9pm for its First Thursday Late Night public events.

About the Perot Museum of Nature and Science: The top cultural attraction in Dallas/Fort Worth and a Michelin Green Guide three-star destination, the Perot Museum of Nature and Science is a nonprofit educational organization located in the heart of Dallas, Texas, with campuses in Victory Park and Fair Park. With a mission to inspire minds through nature and science, the Perot Museum delivers exciting, engaging and innovative visitor and outreach experiences through its education, exhibition, and research and collections programming for children, students, teachers, families and life-long learners. The 180,000-square-foot facility in Victory Park opened in December 2012 and is now recognized as the symbolic gateway to the Dallas Arts District. Future scientists, mathematicians and engineers will find inspiration and enlightenment through 11 permanent exhibit halls on five floors of public space; a children's museum; a state-of-the art traveling exhibition hall; and The Hoglund Foundation Theater, a National Geographic Experience. Designed by 2005 Pritzker Architecture Prize Laureate Thom Mayne and his firm Morphosis Architects, the Victory Park museum has been lauded for its artistry and sustainability. Cirque du Soleil presents

KURIOS - Cabinet of Curiosities

Cirque du Soleil returns to the Dallas area in 2017 with its most acclaimed touring show, KURIOS - Cabinet of Curiosities™.

KURIOS will premiere under the iconic blue-and-yellow Big Top at Lone Star Park at Grand Prairie on February 17-March 12, 2017. Written and directed by Michel Laprise, KURIOS - Cabinet of Curiosities is a tale in which time comes to a complete stop, transporting the audience inside a fantasy world where everything is possible. In this realm set in the latter half of the nineteenth century, reality is quite relative indeed as our perception of it is utterly transformed. KURIOS - Cabinet of Curiosities is Cirque du Soleil's 35th production since 1984. The company, who celebrated its 30th anniversary in 2014, has brought wonder and delight to close to 150 million spectators in more than 300 cities on six continents. Cirque du Soleil has close to 4,000 employees, including 1,300 performing artists from close to 50 different countries.

KURIOS About: The Webseries! Follow the cast and crew of KURIOS on tour, and discover what hides in their Cabinet of Curiosities. Watch the 13 episodes on Cirque du Soleil's YOUTUBE channel or follow on Facebook, Twitter and Instagram.
