Valentine's Day Massacre

February 14-16, 8-10pm

Moxley Manor

(510 Harwood Road, Bedford, TX 76021)

There have been many stories about the haunted Moxley Manor and the actual mansion has remained uninhabited for many years due to the stories of jealousy, lies and murder. If typical Valentine's Day plans are not what you're looking for, the haunted Valentine's Day massacre may be a great alternative choice. Introducing a different and darker side to love, Moxley Manor will be presenting a three-day haunted house. Groups of 20 or more are eligible for discount tickets, so this is a great option for a group of friends. A portion of the proceeds from the events this year will be donated to the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society. Moxley Manor is an indoor attraction so tickets will be valid rain or shine. For more information, visit www.moxleymanor.com or call 682-231-1313.

The Cowtown Marathon

The Cowtown is celebrating its 40th year as it welcomes the world to Fort Worth. The Cowtown offers a race distance for everyone, including the Cook Children's 5K, Adults 5K and 10K on Saturday and the Ultra Marathon presented by Miller Lite, Marathon and Half Marathon on Sunday. The entire family can participate either as a runner or a spectator cheering along the route. Ambitious runners can take The Cowtown Challenge and run a race both days!

The Cowtown Marathon is a nonprofit organization promoting health and fitness in the community. By running the Cowtown, runners are supporting C.A.L.F. (Children's Activities for Life & Fitness) Program, which provides training and education to students regarding health and nutrition. A grant program is offered for children in need of funding their entries into the Cook Children's 5K. The Cowtown Marathon has partnerships with several local charities where runners raise funds for various causes, such as Alzheimer's Association and Team RWB. Don't want to participate in the marathon but want to help give the gift of fitness? A donation of $50 covers the program's year-long training, shoes and entry fee grant for one child. Help instill a healthy lifestyle in our community and donate today. To register online, donate to C.A.L.F., or get additional information, visit cowntownmarathon.org.

2018 Cliburn Festival:

The Music of Russia

February 22-25

The Modern Art Museum of Fort Worth

(3200 Darnell Street, Fort Worth, TX 76107)

Sixty years ago, a 23-year-old Texan went to Moscow at the height of the Cold War and came back an American hero and an international icon. The impact of Van Cliburn's victory at the First International Tchaikovsky Competition cannot be overstated; he disregarded boundaries and brought the world together through excellent music and his signature warmth. But at the heart of this accomplishment was Van's deep, abiding love of and connection to the music of Russia. The festival marks the 60th Anniversary of Van Cliburn's historic International Tchaikovsky Competition victory, and will celebrate Russian music through a series of concerts. Performers will include three Cliburn laureates, each of whom hail from Russia—Alexander Kobrin (2005 gold medalist), Yury Favorin (2017 finalist), and Georgy Tchaidze (2017 finalist)—to serve as artists-in-residence and help explore the masterpieces of their homeland. The Rolston String Quartet also joins them in this adventure. For more information, visit www.cliburn.org.

DALLAS ARBORETUM AND BOTANICAL GARDEN

The Dallas Arboretum and Botanical Garden, often listed among the top 10 public display gardens in the country, set a record with 40,000 member families for the first time ever. This news comes on the heels of the garden reaching more than one million visitors from more than 90 countries for the second year in a row in 2017.

Members' investment in the botanical garden is taken seriously from the public events to education. That said, members are encouraged to volunteer on one of the many committees to share their great ideas and input, so that they can continue to offer the best membership value. In fall 2017, the Dallas Arboretum debuted A Tasteful Place, a 3.5-acre edible display vegetable, fruit and herb garden, along with a pavilion, lagoon and views of downtown Dallas' iconic skyline, so the garden is seeing increased traffic, interest in membership and the need for more volunteers to help.
