Dallas Arboretum: Summer of Sculpture Through July 31

The gardens often reach their most lush and beautiful state during their summer festival! Summer at the Arboretum might surprise you. The gardens remain lush, green and happy, full of entrancing beauty. Thousands of feet of misters, a host of beautiful water features and hundreds of shade trees combine to offer a cooling experience that makes the garden all the more stunning. Whether you want to get outside with the family for a picnic or enjoy an amazing concert set against sunset over White Rock Lake, you'll find a wonderful way to spend the day at the Arboretum during the summer. The Dallas Arboretum debuts artist Seward Johnson's "Celebrating the Familiar" exhibit, supported in part by the Dallas Tourism Public Improvement District, a collection of 25 sculptures throughout the garden as their summer exhibition. Following a career as a painter, Johnson began sculpting. Now, more than 450 of his life-size cast bronze sculptures are part of museums around the world and in private collections, as well as in Times Square and Rockefeller Center in New York City, Les Halles in Paris and Via Condotti in Rome.

Johnson's first sculpture, Stainless Girl, won the grand prize in the U.S. Steel Design in Steel Competition. Later, his realistic bronze works won him accolades across the globe. His sculptures of people performing familiar tasks in an ordinary life were created to celebrate the great value in everyday activities, and to encourage taking a moment to savor them. Johnson's goal was not to just create people performing routine tasks, but also to celebrate the familiar and to recognize the great value within. These familiar tasks are part of what makes us human and connects us to others. Contact your concierge for discounted general admission tickets and parking passes. For more information, visit www.dallasarboretum.org.

Casa Mañana Presents A Man Of No Importance

This tender story of family, friendship and acceptance teaches us that it really is a wonderful thing to "love who you love." Alfie Byrne is a bus driver in 1964 Dublin whose heart holds secrets that he can't share with anyone but his imagined confidante, Oscar Wilde. When he attempts to put on an amateur production of Wilde's Salome in the local church hall, he confronts the forces of bigotry and shame over a love "that dare not speak its name." But the redemptive power of theatre changes his life and brings his friends back to his side. This show is suitable for most audiences. Contact your concierge for discounted tickets. For more information, visit www.casamanana.org.

Fort Worth Zoo has Reopened!

Social distancing among all zoo staff and guests is vital. The zoo will have visual reminders placed to ensure guests are maintaining a safe social distance along the pathways.

Per state and county officials' suggestions, guests are strongly encouraged to wear facemasks while visiting the zoo. (Please bring your own.) All zoo staff working in the park must wear masks.

Guests will not have access to some high-touch attractions and areas of the zoo, including some rides, animal feedings, playgrounds, water fountains and misters. Staff will continuously clean high-touch surfaces like vending machines, tables, chairs and more. Guests are encouraged to wash their hands after encountering those areas. In addition to restrooms located throughout the zoo, some hand-washing stations are positioned throughout the park. If a guest feels sick, they should not visit the zoo. Contact your concierge for discounted zoo tickets which will not require a reservation. For more information visit www.fortworthzoo.org.
